

What is the price of a 20-position electrical distribution box

AI Overview

The price of a 20-position electrical distribution box typically ranges from $50 to $400, depending on brand, amperage, and features.

Price Range and Retail Options

Home Depot lists 20-space breaker boxes with prices ranging from $50 to $400, including popular models like the Square D Homeline 100 Amp 20-Space 40-Circuit Indoor Main Breaker Load Center with Cover (HOM2040M100PCVP) available for online purchase or in-store pickup. Amazon offers Leviton 20-space load centers with 100A main breakers, featuring modern designs, plug-on neutral systems, and compatibility with smart breakers, typically priced in the mid-to-high range of the market. Alibaba provides 20-way MCB boxes for residential and commercial use, often made of steel or stainless steel for durability, suitable for indoor or industrial applications. Prices vary depending on material, amperage, and shipping. eBay lists 20A maximum amperage electrical panels and distribution boards at competitive prices, often with free shipping, making it a cost-effective option for budget-conscious buyers.

Factors Affecting Cost

Amperage Rating: Higher amperage panels (e.g., 100A vs. 60A) generally cost more.

Material and Durability: Steel or stainless steel enclosures for industrial or outdoor use are more expensive than standard indoor plastic or metal panels.

Brand and Features: Premium brands like Square D, Siemens, and Leviton offer advanced features such as plug-on neutral, smart breaker compatibility, and enhanced safety certifications.

Installation Type: Indoor panels are usually cheaper than weather-resistant outdoor units. Customization, such as labeling or integration with building management systems, can increase the price.

Summary

For a standard 20-position electrical distribution box, expect to pay $50-$400 depending on specifications, brand, and features. For residential use, a 1...
